STAFF APPLICATION

An Equal Opportunity Employer

Applicants are not required to give any information on this form prohibited by Federal, State, or local law. This application will be given every consideration, but its receipt does not imply that the applicant will be employed. Applicants accepted for employment are on a trial basis with a probationary period. If, in the judgment of the camp management staff, the employee has not adapted to the work assigned, or that information given has been misrepresented, the engagement may be terminated without other reason.

In connection with your application for employment, an investigation may be made requesting information as to character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living.

All applicants will be required to comply with the "BSA Youth Protection Training" by undergoing and completing a comprehensive course in recognizing and dealing with symptoms of child abuse. Training occurs during staff week, and at other times throughout the year. All adult volunteers must repeat this training every two (2) years.
